

Presenter Name	Do you have any Financial Disclosure Statements?	If, "Yes" to the question above, please describe any commercial support and/or any other relationship that could be construed as a conflict of interest.
Barry M. Prizant	Yes	Dr. Prizant receives royalties for his books, Uniquely Human: A Different Way of Seeing Autism (Simon &amp; Schuster) and The SCERTS Model Manuals (Brookes Publishers) Relevant nonfinancial relationship(s) Adjunct Professor, University of Rhode Island (receives no compensation) Editorial Advisory Board: Five professional journals Advisory Board: The Miracle Project; Spectrum Theatre Ensemble, others
Alissa Ellis	No
Assal Habibi	No
Anne Marie Albano	Yes	I receive royalties from Oxford University Press for being co-author of several treatment manuals, a parent guide, and a diagnostic interview schedule.
Shiri Sadeh-Sharvit	Yes	I'm the co-founder and CEO of Resolve, an AI-powered platform designed to improve communication and adherence among families navigating chronic conditions and complex care needs.
Emily Rubin	Yes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Emily Rubin is a salaried employee at Communication Crossroads in Palm Desert, CA.</li> <li>- As a co-author of SCERTS manuals, Emily Rubin receives royalties from Brookes Publishing Company.</li> <li>- As a co-author of SCERTS, Emily Rubin receives royalties from Medbridge for their online SCERTS Modules.</li> </ul>
Nastassia Hajal	No
Elizabeth Laugeson, Psy.D.	Yes	I receive royalties from the sales of my books from Wiley & Sons and Taylor and Francis.
Perry LaRoque	No
Laurie Stephens	No
Dr. Aliza Pressman	No
Amy Jane Griffiths	No
Charlotte DiStefano	No
Nora Friedman	No
Jenny Radesky	Yes	I have received research funding from Common Sense Media in the past; have been paid as a consultant by Pew Internet Research and Melissa & Doug Toys in the past; am an expert witness for the State of California.
Talya Block	No	